SkillBridge Program Fellowships

CVS Health® offers a 12-week hands-on Store Manager in Training (SMIT)/Operations Manager program for active-duty service members (within 180 days of exiting service) and military spouses.

Store Manager in Training is the first step in our Retail Management Development Program and is a short-term role that provides both work assignments and training opportunities to prepare SMITs to be promoted into a Store Manager/Operations role. During your participation in the program, you will also receive career development training to ensure you are equipped with the tools necessary to excel in a new career.

What you will learn in the program:

- Supporting overall store management, supervision, and policy implementation
- Overseeing sales and inventory management
- Hiring and development of store employees
- Management of store financials
- Mentor and inspire employees to exhibit personal and engaging customer service
